

Mr. KUCINICH. Entitlement reform 2012. Let's see. Wealthy Americans are entitled to tax breaks. Corporations are entitled to billions in giveaways. Arms manufacturers are entitled to bigger contracts. The poor and the middle class? Well, they're entitled to unemployment, underemployment, foreclosures, and cuts in both Social Security and Medicare.

Poor and middle class Americans know all about the fiscal cliff. They've been getting pushed off it for years with an unfair tax system, unconscionable trade deals, and the Fed's monetary policies.

Nearly 50 million people are in poverty in America, 12 million unemployed, millions more underemployed. On January 2, millions stand to lose unemployment benefits. Fourteen million Americans' mortgages are greater than the value of their homes.

On the horizon loom massive cuts to essential services. Will the American austerity replace the American Dream? We need to turn back from the fiscal cliff with wealth creation, education, job creation, infrastructure rebuilding, monetary reform, trade reform, and protection of Social Security and Medicare. We need a great economic revival, not another Great Depression.

HASHTAG: TERRORISTS

(Mr. POE of Texas asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute.)

Mr. POE of Texas. Mr. Speaker, what do @HSMPress, @Alqassam Brigade, and @almanarnews all have in common? Here's a hint: HASHTAG: TERRORISTS.

That's right: foreign terrorist organizations like al-Shabaab, Hamas, and Hezbollah all use an American company—Twitter—to recruit other extremists. They spread their anti-American propaganda and preach violence and murder.

Hamas has over 42,000 followers. Their tweets have included everything from calls for jihad attacks to a "new Holocaust." Isn't that lovely?

Mr. Speaker, the Supreme Court of the United States has ruled that when there is a "broader strategy to promote terrorism," foreign terrorist organizations are not protected under free speech rights.

We should be doing everything we can to disarm our enemy, whether that means freezing their bank accounts or freezing their Twitter accounts. Allowing foreign terrorist organizations to freely operate on Twitter is enabling the enemy. The FBI and Twitter must recognize sooner, rather than later, that social media is a tool for the outlaw terrorists, and it has to stop.

And that's just the way it is.

DEMOCRACY IN THE REPUBLIC OF GEORGIA

(Mr. DREIER asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. DREIER. Mr. Speaker, as the Republic of Georgia deals with its first democratic transition of power, I spent the last few days speaking at length with President Saakashvili and the new Prime Minister Ivanishvili about the necessity to continue the pursuit of the rule of law.

Mr. Speaker, this is a critical moment for the Georgian people that could either put the country inexorably on the path of sustainable democracy or turn back the clock on the tremendous gains that have been made since the Rose Revolution. Mr. Speaker, the United States must remain engaged with the new government to promote continued democratic reform.

A robust democracy demands not only the ability of the majority party to advance its agenda, but also the preservation of the rights of the minority to raise questions and hold the government accountable.

Furthermore, prosecutions must be conducted in accordance with the rule of law, with full inquiries preceding arrests. Great diligence must be exercised to ensure that investigations are legitimate and not politically motivated.

I have urged and will continue to urge, Mr. Speaker, this new government to deliver on its campaign promises of continued democratic development and enhanced transparency.

RECOGNIZING A HOMETOWN HERO OF FRISCO, TEXAS

(Mr. BURGESS asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. BURGESS. Today I rise to recognize a member of the Frisco City Council, Captain Tim Nelson. Although he was elected to the council more than 18 months ago, his dais seat has frequently been empty, but for a good reason.

Shortly after taking office, Captain Nelson received orders from the United States Army Reserve and was deployed to Afghanistan. During the past year, Captain Nelson was on the NATO military base with the 980th Engineer Battalion. As the unit's civil engineer, he oversaw construction projects ranging from roads to water crossings to intelligence.

While in Afghanistan, Captain Nelson carried a copy of the United States Constitution everywhere he went. His reason was, "You don't always have to agree with the politics of the day. But truly, by the grace of God, we were born in America. And if you've been to enough places around the world, you'll know how lucky we really are and how wonderful a place we live in."

While Captain Nelson was not able to be at council meetings, he was never forgotten. The opening of each council meeting included a prayer for his family and for his safe return home. He is home now; and he said, I'll "do my best to pay them back for the time I was gone."

On November 8, he returned back to Texas to his wife, Candice, and their three children.

Mr. Speaker, I am proud to recognize the service of a councilman of Frisco, Texas, Captain Tim Nelson.
